In these times when journalists are distressed, condemned, ridiculed, assaulted and constantly face layoffs, pay cuts and worse, let it be known that we honor and support journalists and journalism. Keep it on your radar. It’s important to the people and essential to democracy itself. — Roger Simon

In the days of hot type, a typesetter was a chaser, someone who ran the type through the platen to make the typesetter ready to stop the presses until the late edition of the newspaper for which the pages were ready. Those pages were said to be “chasing” a running press.
